You live in City 08 and your sat in your apartment watching a Combine Broadcast when you hear a knock at the door, the only people that ever knock on your door are Civil Protection Officers and not opening the door for them isn't a good idea. You turn the TV off and you walk to the front door of you apartment, you open the door and to your surprise it's a citizen, you notice straight away that its a women and that she's quite pretty despite the Combine revoking all luxuries and proper food. The women looks to be in her early 20s, she's wearing the standard blue citizen jumpsuit with brown shoes but the two top buttons of her jumpsuit are undone revealing that she has unusually swollen breasts. The women has brown hair that has been pinned back and a very cute face but she looks worried about something, just before you're able to say anything to her she slowly looks up at you, smiling and fluttering her eyes as she's say "Can I come in?" her voice is very soft and it sends tingles down your spine. You step aside and she walks into your apartment as you close the door.

The women walks straight over to your window and looks down at the street, you walk up to window next to her and do the same, you see four Civil Protection Officers get into an APC and speed down the road, as the APC disappears out of sight she steps back from the window and you turn to look at her. The women smiles at you as she lets down her brown hair, her hair falls down to shoulders and she starts to unbutton her jumpsuit, you stand there staring at her, watching as her hands slowly unbutton her jumpsuit all the way down to her belly. When the women stops unbuttoning she pushes her shoulders back, letting the jumpsuit slip off, as her jumpsuit falls off her swollen C sized breasts bounce out and she lets out a sigh of relief. You stand there staring at her chest, she looks up at you and smiles as she cups both her breasts in her hands. She start to speak in a very soft and seductive voice, almost whispering "Do you know why there so big? The rumours are true, the suppression field is down and I think I'm the first to feel the effects" she takes her hands off her breasts and she starts to walk towards you, she gently pushes you back onto the couch and she sits on your lap, wrapping her legs around your waist as she continues to talk "most of the Combine are leaving for City 17 so now I can take my chance. We've got to do it, for the survival of our species"

Before you can answer her she unzips your pants letting you out, she puts her hands on your shoulders and she lifts her self up onto you. You slide into her and she lets out a groan of pleasure, she starts to rotate her hips slowly, she goes at it for a while until you put your hands on her hips, she looks at you biting her bottom lip as she starts to move up and down, feeling every inch of you. She starts to move faster and her breasts bounce, she pushes you back and begins to ride on top of you, she lets out moans of pleasure, she gets louder and louder until you explode inside her. You both fall back onto the bed and fall asleep, her womb still filling with seed.
